

III.13 Forward Capacity Market

[illegible]

III.13.1 Qualification Process

[illegible]

III.13.1.1 New Capacity Qualification

The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation.

III.13.1.2 Existing Capacity Qualification

[illegible]

III.13.2 Forward Capacity Auction

The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation.

accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation.

III.14 Capacity Supply Obligation

The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation. The Market Participant shall submit the required documentation in accordance with the schedule established by the ISO, and shall be determined to have satisfied the applicable requirement upon written confirmation.